

Identity guidelines RUF Automobile

German super car brand

Founded in the 1930s, the essence of RUF Automobile was in the blood of everyone who worked there. To help communicate this iconic German car brand to a wider audience, a CI and graphic guidelines were developed. Brand values were identified and core design elements established to help global agents communicate the brand to new customers.

Features

Defining, refining, traditional, quality, historic.

