

Team clothing Lotus F1 Team 2014

Flying colours

The team clothing concept for 2014 was predominantly black with accents of gold and red. Giving the same colour balance to both car and clothing created a unified look for the whole team and with performance materials and contemporary garment styles, the perception was one of quality and sophistication.

