Logotypes

Adaptix

Re-brand of a technology company specialising in the development of 3D X-ray technology. The project included logo, stationery, document template and website design.

Manor Cottages

Design of single colour logo primarily for use on holiday home rental website and support materials.

Thyrsis

A technical and managerial consultancy with a motorsport heritage and strong literary link with a poem by Matthew Arnold. The project included logo, stationery, template and website design.

GRC

A graphic design refresh for an existing brand that didn't want to completely cut the ties with its existing identity. Evolution not revolution. That said, the project took a thorough look at all aspects of the identity and not only gave it a clean modern appearance but introduced some completely new visual marketing tools.
